

US-2000 CL

This simple system will process product stacks or can unitize products from the production line. A pneumatic pusher slides unbanded product into the bander. The system discharged the banded bundle onto an exit conveyor or table. Printed bands can be used for product identification and marketing.